

roots & wings COMMUNITY SCHOOL

March 12, 2021

Dear RWCS Community,

WOW! In my wildest dreams, I would never have guessed that when I wrote the weekly update last Friday talking about if we could come back in a Hybrid mode, that by Monday morning PED would be instructing schools to return to fully in-person and do it by April 5th! So this week was a lot of scrambling (why I am writing this update a 10 pm) and readjusting our thinking and priorities before heading off on Spring Break.

RWCS has proposed to PED to allow us to delay a week before doing full re-entry on April 12th. You can read more details of our plan by clicking here. This description is the same one being used in the survey that was sent out earlier on Friday evening. We are again asking everyone to answer our Full Re-entry Survey to help us plan how we will operate in a full re-entry mode while also still offering a fully remote option to those that want it. PLEASE complete this survey by March 24th.

Just a reminder that Spring Break is next week, March 15-19, so NO school! Of course, students can always spend the week either catching up or doing extra work! 😊 Also remember about the time change this weekend and set your clocks ahead 1 hour!

There will be no Friday Update next week due to the break. Classes will resume on Monday, March 22nd.

Space Available in Wednesday's Game Night

Ms. Peg is offering a weekly game night on Wednesdays from 5-6 pm playing the "Eurogame" called Ticket to Ride. Eurogames games tend to be fast, don't have head-to-head competition, and are a lot more fun than Monopoly or Risk. Ticket to Ride details and how to sign up.
